Garden Checklist

1. You can prune grapes now, but wait at least another month on Roses, two months on Fuchsias.
2. Garden tools make perfect Christmas gifts for the man who always puts off replacing worn out equipment.
3. Don't overlook the traditional Poinsettia when it comes to deck the halls with holiday decor.
4. Chrysanthemums may be cut to the ground when their last blooms fade.
5. Pots standing in dishes should be checked during wet weather to insure that no excess water is left to damage the plant.

Pvt. David E. Dahlberg, 18, son of Mrs. Vivian Dahlberg, 3438 W. 172nd St., completed the 11-week basic ordnance electronics course Nov. 23 at the Army Signal School, Fort Monmouth, N. J.

Dahlberg was trained in basic electronics and qualified to repair and maintain integrated fire control and guided missile equipment.

He entered the Army last June and completed basic training at Fort Ord, Calif.

Dahlberg is a 1960 graduate of North High School.

TARTAR TEEN TALK

By Carol Porterfield

The Senior Play, "Curtain Going Up" was presented Friday evening at 8 p. m. The play was a different type of light comedy that disregarded conventional type theatrical production and delighted its audience with this fresh approach. Under the able direction of the faculty director, Mrs. Beverly Annis, and student director, Linda Kraegel, the play was a striking success.

LEADS WERE taken by Pat King, Barbara Huggins, Jan Planz, Carolyn Shire, and Ed Houston. Other parts were taken by Jim Christian, Sheryl Rice, Linda Smiley, Larry Melton, Loren Schwenk, Richard Fisher, Wayne Huges, Nan Shirley, Paula Blankinship, Carolyn Shire, Bonnie Staton, Carolyn Loupas, Owen Piekutowski, Barab Zubovich, and Jimmie Ruth Lawrence.

Music was supplied by George Knights and the Torrance High School Dance Band.

A HAWAIIAN Aud-Call was presented Tuesday, Nov. 29, by Mr. Burt Hexson, a student from the University of California.

Mr. Hexson had traveled throughout the Hawaiian Islands taking vivid color movies which he narrated.

The film covered a wide variety of subjects concerning the Hawaiian Islands and was rated as one of the finest aud-calls presented this year.

THE STUDENT Council is sponsoring its annual Christmas Formal, December 16th. The theme for this year's formal will be "Winter Enchantment."

The formal will be held in the Girls' Gym from 7 to 11 p. m.

Bids will go on sale next week for a dollar and a half.

NOMINATION blanks for Student Body offices have been available to students for the past week and will be available until December 9th.

Students may run for one major and one minor office if they meet the requirements set forth and obtain the signatures of 20 Torrance High High School students on their petitions.

All students possessing Leadership ability are encouraged to run for offices.

A REPRESENTATIVE Assembly was held Wednesday during third period.

Representatives from each homeroom class and all contemporary problems classes were present. Gerry Goins, A.S.B. vice-president, presided at the meeting.
